Alcan names new CEO of bauxite, alumina group

Canadian Press

MONTREAL - Alcan Inc. announced yesterday a new chief executive of its bauxite and alumina division, a business under fire from social activists for a major bauxite mine proposed for India. Jacynthe Cote, 47, was introduced to shareholders at the annual meeting, where activists threw questions and accusations at CEO Travis Engen, both for the India project and over Alcan's intentions at Kitimat, B.C.
